Arcanum'24 (29th December 2024) Resource Person: Economist Mr. Anand Srinivasan

Mr. Anand Srinivasan as the resource person. The event aimed to provide students with deep insights into emerging economic trends, financial market dynamics, and global economic policies. The seminar witnessed an overwhelming response, with 300 students from various colleges actively participating, making it a grand success.

Mr. Anand Srinivasan delivered an engaging and thought-provoking session, covering key economic issues, financial sustainability, and the impact of digital transformation in the financial sector. The interactive discussion enabled students to gain valuable perspectives on real-world economic challenges and strategies for navigating them. The event also served as a platform for knowledge exchange, networking, and intellectual discussions among students from diverse institutions.

In addition to its academic significance, Arcanum'24 proved to be financially beneficial, generating a revenue of ₹70,000, which contributed to the department's academic initiatives and future student development programs. The positive feedback from participants and faculty members reinforced the impact of the seminar, establishing it as one of the flagship events of the department. The success of Arcanum'24 not only enriched students' understanding of economic and financial matters but also strengthened the department's reputation as a hub for academic excellence and industry-oriented learning.
